

Medication exposure is a resolved joint provenance operator—not a table

Distinct record layers become analytic exposure only after all five operator dimensions are resolved

